WELCOME TO THE GILL BOOKS CATALOGUE OF NEW BOOKS

Books are back!

We never really believed they'd gone away, but it's certainly great to read reports of the resurgence of the printed book and of destination bookshops.

In the crazy times we're living in, perhaps it's more important than ever that we can turn to a book to gain solace, perspective and balance.

Barack Obama* said that books were invaluable to him during his presidency, that they helped him 'slow down and get perspective' and gave him 'the ability to get in somebody else's shoes'.

We hope this season's books can be there for you, whether you're looking to:

- ENGAGE WITH IT. Caitríona Perry, Blindboy and Frank Connolly's books offer unique perspectives on the times we're living in.
- ESCAPE FROM IT. In Sight of Yellow Mountain, Oh My God, What A Complete Aisling and Andrea Hayes' Dog Tales will help you get away from it all.
- GO INWARDS. Francis Brennan, Michael Murphy and Fiann Ó Nualláin are all here to help make your life more meaningful.

In addition, we hope you'll find plenty of gorgeous gifts for friends and family this season. After all, if books are back, you'll be giving the hottest accessory around.

The Gill Books Team

The Gospel According to Blindboy

BLINDBOY
BOATCLUB

AUTHOR

Blindboy Boatclub is Ireland's foremost satirist and its most original comedic voice. As one half of the Rubberbandits, he has released a number of hit singles, including the iconic 'Horse Outside' and 'Dad's Best Friend' (featured on the soundtrack to Trainspotting 2), toured to critical acclaim both at home and abroad, and presented a number of popular television shows, such as RTÉ's Rubberbandits' Guide and The Almost Impossible Gameshow. Blindboy has also campaigned in support of numerous social issues, including male mental health.

THE FUNNY MAN WITH THE PLASTIC BAG ON HIS HEAD REVEALS AN ASTOUNDING LITERARY TALENT

The Gospel According to Blindboy is a surreal and genre-defying collection of short stories and visual art exploring the myths, complacencies and contradictions at the heart of modern Ireland. Covering everything from love and death to sex and politics, it's pitched halfway between the Angelus and Oculus Rift, globalisation and gombeenism.

Whip-smart and provocative, and animated by the author's unmistakably dark wit, it recalls some of the nation's most acclaimed literary voices – such as Flann O'Brien and Kevin Barry – while simultaneously breaking new and exciting ground. Unlike anything else you're going to read this year.

In America

CAITRÍONA PERRY

AUTHOR

Caitriona Perry is currently RTÉ's Washington Correspondent. She has won awards for her television and radio reportage, including a Justice Media Merit Award for TV News in June 2015. She has a degree in journalism and a master's degree in international relations from Dublin City University, where she was recently named one of the university's distinguished alumni.

YOU KNOW WHY PEOPLE DIDN'T VOTE FOR DONALD TRUMP - NOW FIND OUT WHY SOME PEOPLE DID

As RTÉ's Washington Correspondent, Caitriona Perry has earned a reputation as a reliable source of truth as we try to make sense of the maelstrom of shocking headlines emanating from Trump's America. In her first book, she goes beyond the news reports and delves into the American heartland where she witnessed the rise of Trump at first hand.

Bringing to the table the voices of those who voted for Trump, Hillary Clinton's so-called 'basket of deplorables', the ones whose opinions didn't coalesce with acceptable mainstream discourse, Caitriona Perry reveals just what is really happening in America right now.

NAMA-land

FRANK CONNOLLY

AUTHOR

Frank Connolly is one of Ireland's most distinguished investigative journalists and the author of the acclaimed bestseller Tom Gilmartin: The Man Who Brought Down a Taoiseach. He is currently Head of Communications at SIPTU. He is a regular contributor to print and broadcast media. He lives in Dublin.

HOW IRELAND'S PROPERTY CRISIS HELPED CREATE A NEW ELITE

The National Asset Management Agency was created in 2009 to contain the spiralling fallout from Ireland's property and banking collapse. Its job was to get the maximum return from the sale of assets for the Irish people and help pay down the state's massive debts. Riven with secrecy and scandal in recent years, however, NAMA has consistently fought off accusations of corruption, insider dealing and conflicts of interest.

Here, and for the first time, bestselling investigative journalist, Frank Connolly, details how mismanagement has handed valuable assets belonging to the Irish people to a small coterie of international venture capitalists and created a vibrant trade in state secrets. Based on exclusive interviews with a wide range of interested parties, NAMA-land is the shocking story of how the sale of public assets conspired to disinherit the Irish people and enrich a new local elite.

De Valera: Rise 1882- 1932

DAVID

AUTHOR

David McCullagh is the author of The Reluctant Taoiseach, a biography of John A. Costello, and A Makeshift Majority, a history of the first inter-party government. He began working as a journalist with the Evening Press before joining RTÉ, where he currently presents the broadcaster's flagship current affairs programme, Prime Time.

A LANDMARK BIOGRAPHY OF THE PIVOTAL FIGURE IN MODERN IRISH HISTORY

No man had a greater influence on Ireland's twentieth century than Éamon de Valera. His legacy lives on through Ireland's constitution as well as ongoing debates about nationalism, women's rights and sovereignty. Irish political and cultural life remains, to a great extent, a world of his creation. But while de Valera the statesman, the rebel, the visionary, has passed over into myth, de Valera the man has always felt elusive.

Here, in this groundbreaking study, David McCullagh returns to de Valera's early years, etching a vibrant portrait of a complex and conflicted character, whose personal struggles and insecurities would help shape the course of Irish history.

The second volume of this seminal study of de Valera's life, De Valera: Rule 1932-1975, will be published in Autumn 2018.

The Rory's Stories Guide to the GAA

RORY O'CONNOR

AUTHOR

Rory O'Connor is a stand-up comedian and the mastermind behind the Rory's Stories Facebook page, one of the biggest social media pages in the country, boasting an audience of hundreds of thousands – an audience so large, in fact, that Rory has toured his material to sold-out shows as far afield as Australia and the Middle East.

THE FACEBOOK PHENOMENON MAKES THE LEAP TO THIS YEAR'S NO.1 CHRISTMAS STOCKING FILLER FOR GAA FANS

Based on the popular Facebook page, which regularly reaches over 500,000 people, The Rory's Stories Guide to the GAA sends up a certain kind of lad: obsessed with the GAA calendar, his local club and county team above everything else.

This hilarious guide to the GAA covers it all: bleep tests; post-game hangovers; forty-way WhatsApp conversations; that lad always doing his hamstring; fair-weather Dub supporters; old men who've umpired every parish game since the Civil War; Marty Morrissey's forehead; ham sandwiches; dirty corner-backs; more hangovers; impenetrable Kerry accents; weight training followed by ten pints; pretending to understand tactics; lobbing it up to the big lad; prima donna corner-forwards ...

Infinitely recognisable and laugh-out-loud funny, it's the perfect gift for GAA fans.

Waterford Whispers News

COLM WILLIAMSON

AUTHOR

Colm Williamson created Waterford Whispers News in 2009 when he was unemployed. Though it began as a hobby, his unique brand of topical, distinctly Irish satire quickly attracted thousands of fans. It now has over 570,000 Facebook followers and an average of 2 million page views on the website every month. Colm runs Waterford Whispers News from his home town of Tramore in Co. Waterford.

THE FOURTH ANNUAL FROM IRELAND'S LEADING ONLINE SATIRICAL SITE

Waterford Whispers News: Newsageddon is the 2017 annual from Waterford Whispers News, featuring the funniest stories from Ireland's leading satirical website, including the latest on Garda scandals, Donald Trump, Brexit, Enda Kenny's departure and Conor McGregor's baby. Follow the diary of a garda recruit in his first year at Templemore and find out who the five greatest Late Late guests of all time were.

Packed with brilliant satire, sharp wit and insightful social commentary, Ireland's answer to The Onion is now a worldwide phenomenon and a must-read in an era when the news has never been more unpredictable.

Ciara's Diary

CIARA KING

AUTHOR

Ciara King is one half of the presenting duo behind 2FM's Chris and Ciara. In addition to regularly appearing elsewhere on RTÉ radio, she's a contributor of roving reports to TV3's Six O'Clock Show and Entertainment.ie. A native of Roundstone in Connemara, Ciara's Diary is inspired by her teenage misadventures.

FOR EVERY GIRL WHO SPENT HER TEENAGE YEARS DANCING TO 'MANIAC 2000' AT THE PARISH DISCO

The year is 1999. 'No Scrubs' rules the airwaves, bootleg DVDs of Cruel Intentions are thrilling crowds of sexually progressive teens and if you're not wearing combat trousers with platforms, you're a nobody. In the midst of this perplexing world, a girl named Ciara, inspired by her heroes Anne Frank and Aung San Suu Kyi (whose struggles are her own), begins to document her plight against pushy parents, bad shifts and the stubborn non-appearance of boobs.

Listeners of the Chris and Ciara show on 2FM will be familiar with presenter Ciara King's hilarious diary segment, in which she reads cringe-worthy entries from a diary inspired by her own teenage years. Ciara's Diary is a laugh-out-loud account of one girl's formative years, that every girl who came of age around the turn of the millennium will recognise. Fresh, funny and occasionally excruciating, Ciara's Diary is the spiritual successor to Adrian Mole, albeit with more shifting.

Oh My God, What a Complete Aisling

EMER MCLYSAGHT & SARAH BREEN

AUTHORS

Emer McLysaght and Sarah Breen originally conceived of Aisling when they shared a flat together in Stoneybatter. Observing certain traits, characteristics and quirks of a very particular type of Irish girl they recognised and identified with, they set up the Facebook page to gather their comical observations and it has since become a phenomenon, taking on a life of its own. Like Aisling, both are from 'down the country'. Emer is a former editor of The Daily Edge while Sarah is a features editor for The Gloss Magazine.

OH MY GOD, IT'S AISLING'S FIRST NOVEL!

After spending the past eight years relating her adventures to a massive and enthusiastic fanbase online, Aisling makes the jump to the literary page (what notions!) in this warm and funny novel about a country girl trying to make her way.

Aisling lives down home with her parents, commuting to her mid-level, pensionable job in Dublin. Two nights a week, she stays with her boyfriend John, an engineer and confirmed 'fine thing'. Life is good, or so it would seem ... But Aisling wants more. She wants the ring on her finger. She wants that road frontage. She wants out of her parents' house.

When a disastrous trip to Spain turns Aisling's world upside down, she surprises herself by agreeing to move to Portobello with stylish Sadhbh and the mysterious Elaine. Newly independent and relocated to the big city, life is about to change utterly for this wonderful, strong, surprising and funny girl, who just happens to be a complete Aisling.

How to Deal with Poxes (on a Daily Basis)

AOIFE DOOLEY

AUTHOR

Aoife Dooley's illustrations started as a web series about life on the northside of Dublin. Based on her own experiences growing up in Coolock, they were first popularised on her Instagram account. Her work has been shared by FM104, SPIN1038, Q102, her.ie and So Sue Me's blog. It has also featured in The Irish Times, Stellar magazine, Offset and on The Ray D'Arcy Show. Her first book, How to Be Massive, was published in 2016.

AOIFE DOOLEY IS BACK AND SHE IS TAKING ON THE POXES WHO WRECK YOUR BUZZ ON A DAILY BASIS

Aoife Dooley has been called 'the Ross O'Carroll Kelly of the Northside', and with her second book she is on an all-Ireland mission, hun. There's been a growing epidemic of poxes and buzz-wreckers everywhere and something needs to be done.

What's a pox? Oh, you know them. The man on public transport who opens a filthy chicken fillet roll beside you first thing in the morning, your co-worker who corners you in a conversation about their children for half an hour, the people who saunter into a shop at 8.59 pm when it's closing at 9.00 pm ... but fear not, Aoife has a solution for every poxy situation.

Aoife's comical, astute observations paired with her brilliant illustrations make How to Deal with Poxes (on a Daily Basis) a must-have survival guide.

The M Word

MAIA DUNPHY

AUTHOR

Maia Dunphy is a blogger, author, broadcaster and television producer. She has written and produced for leading RTÉ comedies such as Podge and Rodge and Zig and Zag, and has made 12 female-centric documentaries for RTÉ, including What Women Want and Maia Dunphy's The Truth About series. She lives between Dublin and London with her very modern blended family.

A BOOK FOR WOMEN WHO HAPPEN TO BE PARENTS

Maia Dunphy is much loved by women everywhere for her girl-next-door relatability and a non-judgemental curiosity, which brilliantly explores how we live now. As a new mum, her focus has shifted to the pressures of modern motherhood and in her first book she shares her experiences of dealing with unwanted advice, sleep deprivation, competitive parenting and dirty nappies.

Like her incredibly popular blog of the same name, The M Word provides an antidote to the constant judgement that being a mother brings. Covering everyday trivialities, traumas and even occasional moments of parenting bliss, this hilarious and brilliantly observed look at being a mum provides a dose of light relief for mothers everywhere who are fed-up with the pressure to do it all whilst running on two hours' sleep and wearing baby-puke-covered clothes. Read this and relax, you're doing fine!

Francis Brennan's Book of Household Management

FRANCIS BRENNAN

AUTHOR

Francis Brennan is a national treasure and the bestselling author of It's the Little Things and Counting My Blessings. He fronts one of Ireland's most popular TV shows, At Your Service, where his wit and charm have endeared him to a mass of fans across the country. Together with his brother John he is co-owner of the five-star Park Hotel Kenmare.

MOVE OVER MRS BEETON, IT'S TIME FOR MR BRENNAN

Sharing all he has learned from running the famously warm and welcoming five-star Park Hotel in Kenmare, Francis Brennan's third book contains everything you need to know to create a happy home.

While modern life can be busy and stressful, a tidy, orderly home for you and your family to come home to can be the perfect antidote to a chaotic world. From decluttering and storage tips, to the art of folding and how to arrange your cushions, to making your own home-made cleaning products and other simple home hacks, with Francis' tips and tricks you can truly relax, knowing that the silver is polished, the napkins are laundered and the sofas are cosy and clean!

The President's Glasses

PETER DONNELLY

AUTHOR

Peter Donnelly is an Irish artist and illustrator of children's books. He began his career as a feature animator for Don Bluth Studios and 20th Century Fox Films. He has been a featured artist in the prestigious Taschen Illustration Now! series and is a recent winner of an IDI Public Choice Award. Peter's work has been described as a delightful blend of mid-century modern and vintage design. He lives with his family in Dublin.

AN IRRESISTIBLY FUN STORY ABOUT A FORGETFUL PRESIDENT AND HIS EVER-READY PIGEON!

The President has some very important documents to sign at Dublin Castle, but without his glasses, how will he do it?

Luckily, the presidential pigeon knows exactly what's happened and follows the presidential car to Dublin Castle, taking in a bird's eye view of the city on his way. But the pigeon gets stuck in traffic on O'Connell Street ... bumps into some tourists taking selfies at Trinity College ... and even beats a Viking ship in a race!

Will he ever catch up with the President to deliver his glasses on time?

Cook Well, Eat Well

RORY O'CONNELL

AUTHOR

Rory O'Connell is founder of the Ballymaloe Cookery School with his sister Darina Allen and one of its most-loved teachers. He worked for many years with Myrtle Allen as chef at Ballymaloe House in Cork as well as with Alice Waters at Chez Panisse in California. His first cookbook, Master It, won the prestigious André Simon Food Book Award.

PERFECTLY BALANCED MEALS FOR ELEGANT ENTERTAINING THROUGH THE SEASONS

Rory O'Connell is back with his second cookbook, containing the recipes from his popular RTÉ TV show, How to Cook Well, and many more. Focusing on seasonal, balanced three-course meals for elegant entertaining, recipes include Beetroot and Autumn Raspberries with Honey, Mint and Labna; Sashimi of Mackerel with Crisped Radishes and Scallions; Roast Hazelnut Panna Cotta with Chocolate and Caramel Sauce; and Duck Leg Curry with Cider Vinegar.

Divided by season, Rory's perfectly balanced meals cater for four to six people. Every season includes a menu for entertaining a large group - from a summer al fresco lunch to a Christmas feast - and one meal per season is entirely meat-free. Complete meals can be replicated for entertaining groups or individual dishes can be tried for simple and pleasing lunches or dinners. An absolute delight of a cookbook offering a very modern way to eat.

The Ascent

BARRY RYAN

AUTHOR

Barry Ryan is European Editor at Cyclingnews. He has covered professional cycling since 2010, reporting from the Tour de France, Giro d'Italia and other events from Argentina to Japan. His writing has appeared in The Independent, ProCycling and Cycling Plus. He is from Glanworth in County Cork.

THE UNTOLD STORY OF HOW A GENERATION OF IRISH CYCLISTS TOOK ON THE WORLD AND WON

For most of the twentieth century, professional cycling was dominated by riders from the traditional heartlands of France, Italy, Belgium and Spain, but in the 1980s two young men from Ireland, a cycling backwater, emerged from obscure beginnings to dominate the sport: Sean Kelly and Stephen Roche.

Here, and on the thirtieth anniversary of Stephen Roche's golden year, in which he won the Giro d'Italia, Tour de France and World Championship, the remarkable story of Roche and Kelly's ascent is laid bare. Based on new and exclusive interviews with Kelly and Roche themselves, as well their teammates, rivals and confidantes, including Paul Kimmage, Martin Earley and Pat McQuaid, The Ascent is the definitive account of Irish cycling's golden era.

Boy Wonder

DAVE HANNIGAN

AUTHOR

Dave Hannigan is a professor of history at Suffolk County Community College on Long Island, and a weekly columnist with The Irish Times. He is the author of several non-fiction books and two children's novels. Born and raised in Togher, Cork, he now lives in East Setauket, New York with his wife Cathy and his three sons.

A POIGNANT COMIC MEMOIR ABOUT FATHERS AND SONS, SPORT, AND THE RITES OF PASSAGE THAT SHAPE EVERY CHILDHOOD

'Boy Wonder will make you ache with nostalgia for your own childhood.' Paul Howard

A collage of personal memories passed over into family myth, Boy Wonder is a funny and moving account of a childhood spent, like countless others, on pitches, sidelines and in stands, struggling to make sense of competition and the outsized role it plays in the lives of men and boys, fathers and sons. From tough lessons on the parish pitch and the politics of afterschool football to the euphoria of Croke Park and brushes with demigods like Jimmy Barry Murphy and Roy Keane, Boy Wonder is one man's story – but a testament to every man's experience.

He has a maîtrise in psychoanalysis from the University of Nancy, a post-graduate advanced diploma in clinical psychotherapy and an M.Phil. in psychoanalytic studies.

UNLOCK THE HIDDEN MEANING OF YOUR DREAMS

We all have dreams, but what do they mean? Your dreams hold the secrets of your unconscious thoughts, and understanding their hidden meaning can guide you in your daily life. Here popular author and psychoanalyst Michael Murphy analyses people's dreams, most of them common ones, and shows you how to interpret their meaning and decipher the messages they are sending you. There are dreams about pop stars, relationships, sex, dead people, horror, animals, being improperly dressed, teeth falling out, the apocalypse, holidays, the Leaving Cert, flying and more.

This book will encourage you to work with your dreams in order to reach a deeper understanding of what is happening in your life, and to make sense of the seemingly random material deriving from the unconscious.

Dog Tales

ANDREA HAYES

AUTHOR

Andrea Hayes is a broadcaster and producer whose work includes TV3's Animal A&E, Dublin Airport and Dog Tales, which she writes, produces and directs. She also guest presents TV3's Middy and is a familiar voice on Dublin's Sunshine 106.8. Both of her previous books, Pain-Free Life and My Life Goals Journal are bestsellers. She lives with her husband, daughter and dog in Dublin.

HEARTWARMING TALES OF RESCUE DOGS WHO RESCUED THEIR OWNERS RIGHT BACK

Andrea Hayes has spent many years documenting her work with the ISPCA and Dogs Trust on her TV shows Animal A&E and Dog Tales with Andrea Hayes. In this book she tells the inspiring true stories of 12 dogs that have been given a second chance at finding their forever homes and of the inspirational owners who found a place in their hearts and homes for the abandoned, and often traumatised, animals.

We hear about Skittles the heavily pregnant and terrified shi tzu, rescued from a puppy farm and eventually rehomed with her best friend Minty the three-legged cat, and about Munchkin, the tiny dog who helped her new owner overcome bullying. We meet Penny the pit bull, who lost her pups but found love with a couple who take her everywhere - even to work. Andrea also reveals how dogs have helped her on her own journey through chronic pain and how the dogs she has encountered have touched her life in different ways, often when she needed it most.

The Good Fight

JIM MCDOWELL

AUTHOR

Jim McDowell is a retired journalist. For twenty-five years he served as the Northern Editor of the Sunday World. He lives in Belfast with his wife, Lindy.

LEGENDARY SUNDAY WORLD NORTHERN IRELAND EDITOR JIM MCDOWELL RECALLS LIFE ON THE FRONTLINE

In Northern Ireland, 1969 is seen as the start of the infamous 'Troubles'. For Jim McDowell, a rookie reporter for the Sunday World, it was the beginning of a life spent at the heart of one of world's most notorious and bitter conflicts.

The Good Fight recalls the kaleidoscope of colourful characters Jim encountered on both sides – the killers, mobs and madmen he met face-to-face and the mayhem and murder he reported on – including never-before told stories of confrontations with infamous gangsters and godfathers.

21 death threats and 45 years later, now retired from his post as Editor of the Sunday World, Jim McDowell's gripping memoir is a raw and gritty portrait of a city under siege and a stirring testament to the power of journalism to speak truth to power.

A Time to Risk All

CLODAGH FINN

AUTHOR

Clodagh Finn spent 10 years working as a journalist at the Irish Examiner before studying in Paris on the Journalist in Europe programme and working there as a freelance writer and editor. She later worked for the Sunday Independent and the Irish Independent. She currently works as a freelance feature writer, editor and trainer and writes a weekly column for the Irish Examiner.

THE UNTOLD STORY OF THE 'IRISH SCHINDLER' WHO SAVED HUNDREDS FROM NAZI CONCENTRATION CAMPS

Mary Elmes was an extraordinary woman from Cork who travelled to Europe in the 1930s to help war-torn refugees. In 1942, when it became evident that Jews were being deported to their death, she risked her life smuggling children to safety in the boot of her car and succeeded in getting a number of adults off convoys bound for Nazi death camps. She was arrested and imprisoned by the Gestapo on suspicion of espionage and hostility against Germany. But when the war was over, she married and settled down, never speaking about what she had done. Her story was forgotten.

Over the past year Clodagh Finn has travelled throughout Europe to piece together the story of this brave, unknown Irish woman, meeting with many of those Mary Elmes saved as children. Here, in a book packed with courage, heroism, adventure and tragedy, her story finally comes to light and she is remembered as she deserves.

In Sight of Yellow Mountain

PHILIP JUDGE

AUTHOR

Philip Judge is an actor with many roles in television, film and theatre in Dublin and London. He lives – contentedly – in Wicklow with his Beloved and two small sons. This is his first book.

THE STORY OF ONE MAN AND HIS FAMILY FALLING IN LOVE WITH THE IRISH COUNTRYSIDE AND FINDING A HOME

First, a dream of escaping the city ... and then a century-old cottage to match the dream. Escaping Dublin's over-priced property market and moving to a small village in the heart of the Irish countryside was the beginning of a new life for Philip Judge – the beginning of life in sight of Yellow Mountain. Beginning and ending at Lughnasa, this charming, funny memoir describes the season-by-season charms and frustrations that he, his Beloved, and eventually, his two growing boys experience as they adapt to life in the Irish countryside.

Cornflakes for Dinner

AIDAN COMERFORD

AUTHOR

Aidan Comerford won So You Think You're Funny? at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2014. He has also performed at the Montreal Just For Laughs festival and the Vodafone Comedy Festival. He lives in Ashbourne with his wife, Martha, and daughters Ailbhe and Sophie.

A MASTERCLASS IN NAVIGATING LIFE'S TOUGHEST CHALLENGES AND REDISCOVERING THE JOY IN EVERY DAY

Aidan Comerford was on top of the world. He stepped off stage having just been crowned the winner of So You Think You're Funny? at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2014. This was it! His big break ...

He returned to Ireland elated, only to find out that while he was in Edinburgh his youngest daughter, who has autism, had gone missing near a lake. For Aidan this was the moment he began to accept that personal dreams can never take precedence over family, a family who were struggling through tough challenges – redundancy, mortgage problems, post-natal depression – and, in the midst of it all, both daughters were diagnosed with autism.

Cornflakes for Dinner is about what happens when expectations don't meet reality, but you carry on and discover that even the darkest of clouds can reveal a silver lining.

Bully-Proof Kids

STELLA O'MALLEY

AUTHOR

Stella O'Malley is a psychotherapist, writer and public speaker with over ten years' experience as a mental health professional. Much of Stella's counselling and teaching work is with parents and young people. She is the author of the bestselling book Cotton Wool Kids.

PRACTICAL TOOLS TO HELP YOUR CHILD GROW UP CONFIDENT, RESILIENT AND STRONG

It can be a toxic mix – bullies who won't let up, worried targets ashamed to tell and bystanders who look the other way. We can't always be there to protect our children as they make their way in the world. What we can do is equip them with the tools they need to ensure they have a positive social experience.

Here, based on many years' experience helping children deal with and overcome bullying, psychotherapist and bestselling author Stella O'Malley explains the dynamics of children's and teenagers' social environments and offers concrete strategies to empower them to deal confidently with bullying and dominant characters.

'For us paid-up members of the over-parenting generation, Stella O'Malley's common sense is a huge relief.' Brendan O'Connor

KARL DEETER AND CHARLIE WESTON

AUTHORS

Charlie Weston covers personal finance with the Irish Independent and the Sunday Independent. He has a weekly personal finance slot on The Last Word on Today FM and is a regular contributor to RTÉ radio, Newstalk and TV3.

Karl Deeter is a commentator and journalist who contributes regularly to broadcast media on the subject of property, finance, financial regulation and financial planning. He also writes for The Irish Sun and the Sunday Business Post. His day job is compliance manager of Irish Mortgage Brokers.

MONEY EXPERTS SHARE THEIR FINANCIAL HACKS FOR SAVING THOUSANDS OF EURO

Personal finance experts Charlie Weston and Karl Deeter see every day how too many of us pay over the odds, get ripped off or simply don't maximise the money we have. Here they share all the money-saving tips and tricks they have garnered over the years.

Each chapter covers a single common personal finance topic, explaining how you can make better choices in this area, the amount you can expect to save over a year, the time it will take to follow the tip and a star rating for the complexity or hassle factor.

So much of what we hear about personal finance is confusing and time-consuming but here Ireland's leading personal finance experts have made it as simple as possible to help you save up to €25,000.

Irishisms

RONAN MOORE

AUTHOR

Ronan Moore is a secondary-school English teacher whose writing is thankfully a lot better than his spelling. When not trying to get students to stand on their desks to look at the world in a different light, he is trying to get them off the tables to write down their homework. Irishisms is a follow up to his hugely successful previous books, Irishology and Irishography.

A HILARIOUS GUIDE TO UNIQUELY IRISH GREETINGS, SAYINGS, BLESSINGS AND BLARNEY

While officially in Ireland we may have only two languages, in truth it is probably closer to three - English, Irish and Irish-English. And it is this third language, Irish-English, that most of us on our fair island now speak.

Irishisms is a hilarious collection of this unique brand of Irish-English and includes the many words we have for describing how average we are; what we really mean when we say sorry; what the correct word to describe your level of insobriety is; the difference between a wagon and a weapon; and when awful is better than savage!

‘A HOUSE TO WHICH THE BEST OF IRISH AUTHORS CAN BRING THEIR MANUSCRIPTS’

When Michael Gill founded Gill in 1968, The Irish Times described it as ‘a welcome enterprise’ and hoped it would become a home for the best of Irish authors.

Since then we’ve been honoured to publish the works of great writers and experts such as Noël Browne, Garret FitzGerald, Tom Garvin, Éamon de Buitléar, Myrtle Allen, Susan Jane White, Francis Brennan and Matt Cooper.

We’ve been there in good times and bad, publishing the books you choose to read on every aspect of Irish life: from the 1960s bestseller Prayers of Life to How Stormont Fell; from Rachel’s Favourite Food to The Encyclopaedia of Ireland; from the heady high of The Pope’s Children to the popular reissuing of Soundings in 2010, when perhaps we all needed a bit more poetry in our lives; from Jim McGuinness’ powerful Until Victory Always and Irelandopedia, which celebrated every county in the country, to more recent bestsellers, Roz Purcell’s Natural Born Feeder, Jason Byrne’s Adventures of a Wonky-Eyed Boy and Kathleen Watkins’ Pigín of Howth. Each book, in its own way, captures a slice of life, a slice of the times we live in.

But it was really Michael’s great-great-grandfather who started our story. In 1856 Michael Henry Gill, then the printer to Dublin University, purchased the publishing and bookselling business of James McGlashan, forming McGlashan & Gill, which then became M.H. Gill & Son, then Gill & Macmillan and, in 2016, simply Gill. The bookshop – popularly known as Gills and referenced in James Joyce’s Ulysses – was located on Dublin’s O’Connell Street for 123 years until it closed in 1979.

Whether it’s printing, publishing or bookselling, we believe reading matters. We’ve always believed in Irish talent and we’ve always believed in the curious mind of the Irish reader. If we’ve managed to help produce something from one to satisfy that of the other, it’s been a good day at the office.

Thanks for reading.
